

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, November 12. 1706.

Baltimore, October 31.

THIS Day arriv'd the Friends Increase, Richard Brand Master, one of the Virginia Fleet, but separated from them soon after their coming out.

Kinsale, Nov. 1. This Day arriv'd the Burlington and Dartmouth, Captain Hoyer and Captain Cock Commanders, in two Months from St. Helena, they sail'd from England with the Oxford in April last. These Ships went to the Cape of Good Hope, where they had Advice of the East-India Fleet's sailing 18 Days before. They were detained there 23 Days and then proceeded to St. Helena, where they heard that the Fleet consisting of 8 Ships sail'd a Fortnight before with the Oxford. They add that Two French Men of War of 60 and 70 Guns came there six Weeks before, under Dutch Colours, saluted the Fort, and then drove athwart the Queen and Dover, cut their Cables, and so carried them.

Falmouth, Nov. 7. The 5th came in Her Majesty's Ship the Swiftsure from cruising, and brought in the Industry of and from Virginia, being of that Fleet and separated from it by bad Weather; and about 50 Leagues to the Westward of Scilly was taken by a St. Malo Privateer, and 48 hours after was retaken by the Nonfuch near the Lizard, where Sir Tho. Hardy in the Kent with the abovesaid Men of War was cruising.

Bideford, Nov. 8. On the 5th Instant arriv'd the Betty Galley and Vanquisher of this Port from Newfoundland, whence they came 16 Days before in Company with about 90 Sail for England, Portugal, &c. under Convoy of 5 Men of War, but were separated from them soon after they came out. The same Day arriv'd the Exchange Gally of this Place from Carolina but last from Virginia, whence she came in Company with about 200 Sail of Ships under the Convoy of 4 Men of War, but were parted from them in bad Weather 350 Leagues to the Eastward of the Capes a Month ago. They say that 3 Ships belonging to London, were run down in the Fleet, and most of their Men lost; and that 8 or 10 Sail more sunk, one of them of this Port call'd the Zant of 120 Tun; and that the Factor of this Place, a Letter of Mart Ship of 26 Guns, had in her Way to Virginia taken a French Ship of 110 Tun and 6 Guns, laden with Sugar, Indigo, &c. from Martinico; worth at least 40000 l. and was coming home with her in the Fleet.

Portsmouth, Nov. 9. To Day came in Her Majesty's Ship the Mary Gally from Lisbon, whence she came with the Pembroke and Tyger Men of War and 18 Sail of Merchant Ships and Transports, but lost Company with them 6 Days ago in bad Weather. She met with one of the Virginia Fleet, which with 4 more of that Fleet had been separated from their Convoys in bad Weather, and were all taken by a French Ship of 30 Guns and 90 Men that was homeward bound from the West-Indies.

The Pembroke is come into the Downes.

Yarmouth, Nov. 8. To Day came into these Roads 9 Vessels from Holland, whence they came the 6th, being about 50 Sail, with 2 English Men of War and the William and Mary Yacht and 2 Dutch Men of War, which 2 last with those bound to the Northward pass'd on the back of these Sands to Day: The Masters belonging to them that came in here report, that they lost Company with the English Men of War and Yacht on Wednesday Night, and on Thursday morning about 8 it being calm, a French Privateer that had fallen in with them in the Night, took 4 of them before the Dutch Men of War could come in to their Assistance.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Saturday Nov. 2. The 1st Article of Union was again read, and thereupon a Motion was Offered in their Terms; That it be agreed to, in the first Place, to proceed to take the first Article of Union to Consideration, with this Provision, That if the other Articles of Union be not adjusted by the Parliament, then the Agreeing to and Approving of the first shall be of no Effect; And that immediately after the said first Article, the Parliament will proceed to An Act for Security of the Doctrine, Discipline, Worship and Government of the Church, as now by Law Established within this Kingdom; And after some Debate thereon, There was a state of a Vote offered, Approve of the Motion Yea or No. Whereupon there was a Resolve offered in their Terms, That before this House proceed to Vote any of the Articles of the Treaty, they will hear what Security the Commission of the Church has to offer for the Church Government, and that before any Incorporating Union be voted; and after some further Debate upon the said Motion and Resolve, a Second State of a Vote was offered, that the Church Government be taken into Consideration before the Articles of Treaty, Yea or No. And after some Debate, which of the two should be the state of the Vote, it was put to the Vote, Whether the First or Second should be the state of the Vote, and it carried the First; Thereafter it was put to the Vote, Approve of the motion or Not, and it carried Approve. Whereupon the First Article of Union was again read, and after some Reasoning thereon, It being objected, that an Incorporating Union of the Two Kingdoms was contrair to and inconsistent with the Claim of Right; The Claim of Right, and the Third Act of the First Parliament of Her Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, Act for approving the turning the Meeting of the Estates into a Parliament, and the Letter of the Meeting of the Estates to King William the Twenty Fourth of April One thousand six hundred eighty nine were read. And an Address by the Barons, Freeholders, Heretors and other Gentlemen in the Shire of Forfar Subscribers of the same, against allowing of an Incorporating Union with England, being given in, was also read. And after long Reasoning and Debate on the said First Article of Union, and Objection, it was of Consent agreed, That the same should be delayed till the next Sederunt of Parliament. Then the Lord Chancellor, by Order of Her Majesties high Commissioner, adjourn'd the Parliament till Monday next at Ten of the Clock.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Monday November 4. The following Addresses were presented, viz. Address of Barons, Freeholders and others within the Shire of Stirling, Subscribers of the same. Address of Barons, Freeholders and others within the Shire of Dumbarton, Subscribers of the same; Address of the Magistrates, Town-Council, Deacons of Crafts and Burgeses, within the Burgh of Linlithgow, Subscribers of the same; Address of Heretors, and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Dunkeld alias Caledonia Subscribers of the same; and an Address of the Town and Paroch of Dyseart, Subscribers of the same; all against an Incorporating Union with England, and were read. Thereafter the first Article of Union was again read, as also the Motion mention'd in the last Minute relating thereto; and after some further debate upon the said Article, a Resolve was offer'd in these Terms, viz. Whereas it evidently appears since the Printing, Publishing, and Considering of the Articles

Articles of Treaty now before this House, this Nation seems generally averse to this Incorporating Union in the Terms now before us, as subversive of the Sovereignty, Fundamental Constitution, and Claim of Right of this Kingdom, and as threatening Ruin to this Church as by Law established. And since it is plain, that if any Union were agreed to in these Terms by this Parliament, and accepted of by the Parliament of England, it would in no sort answer the Peaceable and Friendly end proposed by an Union; but would on the contrary cause such dismal Distractions and Animosities amongst ourselves, and such Jealousies and Mistakes betwixt us and our Neighbours, as would Involve these Nations into fatal Breaches and Confusions. Therefore Resolv'd, That the Parliament are willing to enter into such an Union with England as shall unite them intirely, and after the most strict manner, in all their and this Kingdom's Interests of Succession, Wars, Alliances, and Trade, reserving to this Kingdom the Sovereignty and Independance of their Crown and Monarchy, and Ancient Priviledges and Immunities of the Kingdom, and the Constitution and Frame of the Government, both of Church and State, as they stand now established by the Fundamental Constitution, and Claim of Right and Laws following thereupon. Or, Resolv'd, That the Parliament will proceed to settle the Succession with England upon such Conditions and Regulations of Government within themselves, as shall effectually secure the Sovereignty and Independency of this Crown and Kingdom, and the indissoluble Society of the same with the Fundamental Rights and Constitutions of the Government, both of Church and State, as the same stands Establish'd by the Claim of Right, and other Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom. Which being read, and after debate thereon, the Vote was stated Approve of the first Article of Union or Not. But before Voting the Duke of Athole gave in the following Protest, viz. That he for himself and all others who shall adhere protested, That an Incorporating Union of the Crown and Kingdom of Scotland with the Crown and Kingdom of England, and that both Nations should be represented by one and the same Parliament, as constrain'd in the Articles of the Treaty of Union, is contrary to the Honour, Interest, Fundamental Laws, and Constitution of this Kingdom, the Birthright of the Peers, the Rights and Priviledges of the Barons and Burrows, and is contrary to the Claim of Right, Property and Liberty of the Subjects, and Third Act of her Majesty's Parliament, by which it is declar'd High Treason in any of the Subjects of this Kingdom, to quarrel or endeavour by Writing, Malicious and advised Speaking, or other open Act or Deed, to alter or innovate the Claim of Right, or any Article thereof. And reserving Liberty to him and his adherents to renew their Protestation against further proceedings on the said Matter, and to adjourn their Reasons for the same, and desired this his Protestation be mark'd in the Records of Parliament; which being Read the said Duke of Athole took Instruments thereon, and several Members adhered thereto. Then the Vote was put, Approve of the said first Article of Union or Not, and it carried Approve. Moved, That the List of the bail Members of Parliament, as they voted Pro and Con, be printed, and it was agreed to. Thereafter an Overture for an Act for security of the true Protestant Religion, and Government of the Church as by Law Establish'd within this Kingdom, was read, and order'd to be Printed. Then the Lord Chancellor by order of her Majesty's High Commission adjourn'd the Parliament till Wednesday next at Ten of the Clock.

At the Desire of several Ladies of Quality.
By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Tuesday being the 12th of November, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Careless Husband. All the chief parts being new dress'd, and play'd to the best Advantage, viz. Lord Poppington by Mr. Cibber, Lord Morelove by Mr. Mills, Sir Charles Easy by Mr. Wilks, Lady Betty Modish by Mrs. Oldfield, Lady Easy by Mrs. Barry, Lady Graveairs by Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Edging by Mrs. Bignal.

This Play is Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

AN Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Currell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, the Sham Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening at 7 o'Clock at the Cross-Keys Tavern next Temple-Bar. Price 1 s.

These are to give Notice, That the OBSERVATOR is still Printed and Published by John How, at the Seven Stars in Talbot-Court in Grace-Church street, London. Now written by a Gentleman of Oxford, and not by Mr. TUTCHIN, nor Dr. JOSEPH BROWN, as some Persons have falsely reported. The Author gives this Notice to prevent mistakes for the future; and desires all Gentlemen that have any thing to Communicate to him, to send it to John How's the printer of the said Paper, where Sets of Observators, or single ones from the first to this time, are to be had, and no where else.

At the Hummums in Covent Garden are the best Accommodations for Persons of Quality to Sweat, or Bath every Hour in the Year, the Conveniences of all kinds far exceeding any other Bagnio, both for Rich and Poor: Persons of good Reputation may be Accommodated with handsome Lodgings to lye all Night. There is also a Man and Woman who Cup after the newest and easiest Method. In the Garden of the same House is also a large Cold Bath of Spring-Water that's supplied from a Well under the Dwelling-House, which for its Coldness and Delicacy deserves an equal Reputation with any in use.

The True Golden Snuff is now by the first Author brought to such a perfection, for its Fragrancy and Efficacy, that it far exceeds all others extant, for its giving speedy Relief in the Headach and Toothach, proceeding from Cold; in actually removing Drowniness, Giddiness, Vapours, dulness of Hearing, noise in the Ears, dimness of Sight, or Humours in the Eyes, and in preventing Apoplexies and Falling Sickness, is to be Sold by Mr. James Dodd at Madon's Coffee-House in Bartholomew-lane behind the Royal Exchange, and from the Author at the Green Balcony in Durham-yard in the Strand, London; who, for the convenience of those living remote, hath thought fit to dispose of it in several other Places in the City of London, and in most Cities and Eminent Towns in Great Britain; good Encouragement being allow'd to those who are willing to Sell it by Retail, the Author promising to sell it to no more than one in any City or Town, (London excepted); and whoever sends to him first may receive the benefit of it, which will be considerable, with a large Paper gratis, fit for a Frame, to be hung up in Houses or Shops. Price 1 s. a Paper, with directions. Seal'd up with his Seal being now an Elephant, and the figure of an Elephant stamp'd on the back-side of each Paper with a Latin Inscription round it, and underneath, The True Golden Snuff, to distinguish it from counterfeits now abroad under the notion of Imperial Golden, English Golden, &c.

The Royal Chymical Bath-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetics, &c. it be indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Morpew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands, and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold; and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.

Sancti Athenagoræ Atheniensis Phil. s. Legatio pro Christianis, ad Imperatores M. Aureum Antoninum, & L. Aureum Commodum, Ejusdem de Resurrectione Mortuorum. Accedunt Latina Versio, Emendationes, Variantes Lectiones, Annotationes, atque Indices necessarij. Cura & studio Edw. Dechair A. M. Oronizæ Theatrol. Printed for S. and J. Sprint, A. and J. Churchill, T. Childe and R. Knaplock, Booksellers in London. in 8vo.

Just Publish'd.

A Preservative against Atheism and Infidelity; proving the Fundamental Principles of Natural Religion, and the Necessity and Certainty of Reveald Religion; with an Introduction, shewing the Causes, pernicious Effects, and Cure of Infidelity. By Peter La Touch, Gent. Printed for Thomas Osborne in Grays-Inn near the Walks, and Samuel Butler at Bernards-Inn-Gate in Holborn. Price bound 3 s. 6 d.

Just publish'd.

A Sermon preach'd to the Societies for Reformation of Manners in the Cities of London and Westminster, October the 7th 1706. By Samuel Palmer. Printed for J. Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry.

ADVERTISEMENT.

Amphitryon, or the Two Socias, a Comedy, written by Mr. Dryden. Printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, where may be had the Squire of Alface. Fortune Hunters. Devil of a Wife. Spanish Fryar. A strange Conquest of Granada. Double Dealer. Vvay of the VVorld. The Gamster. Inconstant. Modish Husband, and most other Plays.

The Christians Defence against the Fears of Death, with reasonable Directions how to prepare our selves to Die well. By the late Reverend Mr. Charles Drelincourt: The 4th Edition in 8vo. With an Account of an Apparition at Canterbury, which gave a great Character of the abovesaid Book. Sold by Jonathan Robinson at the Golden Lyon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Contemplations Moral and Divine, by Sir Mathew Hale, Knight, late Lord Chief Justice of England. Sermons on several Occasions, by Geo. Stanhope, D. D. and Dean of Canterbury. Printed for D. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Delight and Judgment; or, The Great Affize: Represented in a Discourse concerning the great Day of Judgment, and its power to Damp and Imbitter Sensual Delights, Sports and Recreations. By Anthony Horneck, D. D. late Preacher at the Savoy. The 3d Edition corrected and enlarg'd. Sold by M. Mortlock at the Phoenix in St. Paul's Church-yard.